WATCH THE IBT INTERNATIONAL OFFICER DEBATE at www.ibtvote.org

On September 7, 2011 General President Candidates Fred Gegare and Sandy Pope and General Secretary-Treasurer Candidate Ken Hall¹ answered questions and debated each other in a 90-minute candidate forum. You can watch the debate, at www.ibtvote.org, at any time from any computer with an internet connection. Watch any of the individual question and answer segments, or the full-length debate as you choose. You can also read or download a transcript of the debate at www.ibtvote.org. OES will not collect or maintain any information that could identify individual visitors that view the debate or download the transcript. Anyone may link to or promote www.ibtvote.org as a source for the debate.

Any IBT member can get a DVD recording and/or a transcript of the debate, free of charge. To get yours, call the Election Supervisor's Office at 888-317-2011 or, in the Washington, D.C. area, 202-429-8683, or send an email with the member's name, local union number, and mailing address to ElectionSupervisor@ibtvote.org. The identity of any member that requests a DVD or transcript from OES is confidential.

Each Local Union (or, in the Rail Conference, each System Federation and General Committee of Adjustment) has three copies of a DVD recording of the debate. The Local Secretary-Treasurer must make the DVD available upon request to any member, or group of members, for viewing or copying. At least one copy of the DVD must be maintained at the Local Union at all times through November 14, 2011.

Dated: September 9, 2011

Richard W. Mark
Election Supervisor

This is an official notice prepared and approved by Richard W. Mark, Election Supervisor for the International Brotherhood of Teamsters. It must remain posted through November 14, 2011 and must not be defaced or covered up.
